Headline:
Early sunshine then cloudier with a few showers on Thursday.

Today:
A sunny start. Cloud soon thickening in the morning but it should remain dry. However, scattered showers breaking out across southern Aberdeenshire in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
A cloudy evening and night. Showers across the south become confined to the east coast at the start of the night before dying out in the early hours. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Friday:
A mostly cloudy day with haar affecting the coasts. Some showers are likely inland by the afternoon, mostly across southern Aberdeenshire where they could be heavy. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Showers breaking out by day, these heavier and more widespread then the last couple of days. Haar will affect the east coast at times. Quite warm in the sunnier spells.
